Folks, we have a guest associate editor this week, Sylvia Sanders, who is in the editorial harness while Associate Editor Peggy Fotsch enjoys a 10-day vacation at Ft. Hayes with her brother, S/Sgt. Allyn Zimmermann and family residing on the post. The editor says, "Happy vacation to Peg and thanks a million to Sylvia for helping out.".....

"Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" but it can't be Jerry Ragland because she's just had her tonsils out and speaks in tones "Sweet and Low.".....

Every subject seems to inspire B. Gregory, poetess-lariate of REA. She writes poetry at the drop of a hat, even turning out a masterpiece on "Washing Diapers" which she dedicated to Frank Jenkins, REA's newest pappy.....

Sgt. Berl Longnecker, on military furlough from A & L, writes from Namur, Belgium, that she is reporting to an Assembly Center the 28th of this month and hopes that means she will be back to the States soon.....

Charlotte Cunningham and Gertrude Bower have found that they have a lot in common. They just discovered that they both have had the same minor operations at different times together. Anyone wanting to hear the why and wherefores of a simply devine handling of a scalpel (surgeon's knife to most of us) should lend an ear to their bloodcurdling description of what they call just a little thing....

Gene Meyer, CEM, dropped into Tech. Standards Wednesday. His good ship, the Apollo, docked at New Orleans, and Gene has 25 days of rehabilitation leave.....

Evelyn Bradbury's latest news from her husband is that he should be home by October 15th - but then you know the Army!.....

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Capt. Bernard Berk, Legaler on furlough, to Leah Cohodas of Green Bay, Wisconsin, on September 2. We're hoping we may be favored with a visit one of these days, now that he's back in this country....

Betty Brummer's friend, who has been with General Wainwright's Army, has been released from a Japanese prison camp. She is hoping along with many others, that he will be here soon safe and sound..

While we are speaking of servicemen, just who is this handsome sergeant (wearing 7 gold stars) Kay Martinovich has been seen with lately?.....

Information gathered round the divisional throne long enough Wednesday to pay its farewell respects to Fleming Bardsley who left the next day for Woonsocket, R. I., where she and her husband, lately returned from the European Theatre of Operations, will make their future home. As evidence of their good will and best wishes, her co-workers presented Fleming with a fountain pen.....

A mantle of worry that had cloaked the Current Information Section during his absence was lifted with the return of R. J. Lambert from his Ozark vacationing. With his hand back at the wheel, the boys can breathe deep again.....

Clarence White is enjoying his bachelorhood while he can. He is to be married come October's 14th day.....

Bill Bannister, expert infantryman, visited Dad, R. H., and was whisked around the 11th floor, amid all the sighs and ohs and ahs of Coop's femmes....

Dorothy Poe's handsome husband is in Pearl Harbor now and ready to take part in the Navy Day parade in New York. His carrier, the Randolph, is losing a good man but, man oh man, look who's getting him. Wonder is T. J. Robertson received his CAIC button which he explained to the regional engineers at the last staff meeting?.....

Mary Krug of Management is in Seventh Heaven these days with her man, Harry Lutz, back home. Harry met Mary in our own little mail room.....

W. H. Grove, one of C.O.D.'s regional heads, is having all his fancy hemstitching removed today...

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. F. Marion returned over the weekend from Montreal, Canada, where they have been vacationing for the past few weeks. With the discontinuance of War (daylight saving) in the offing, Uncle Joe is calculating on how much longer he can sleep in the mornings to avoid getting down to the office before the building is open.....

Helen Martiszus has been selected to be the other reporter for D&C. She will help Reggie Cole handle the editorially shy D&C'ers noted for their retiring natures when it comes to helping the reporters get news from the Division.....

Esther Kreisshauser is ill and was remembered by ever so many beautiful flowers.....

Kaye Hoffman of the Surplus War Property Office is home now convalescing after an operation at St. Mary's Hospital.....

One of REA's military furloughees, Ann Vernier, Marine, will be home in October.....

REA Hiking Club has outdone itself this time in thinking up new places to go and has come up with a ringer. This one is called a Co-op Hike. It will be to Illinois 31 Monroe, The Monroe County Electric Cooperative, Incorporated, Waterloo, Illinois, where they will visit a model farm. More details later.....

Thomas Branch, the Marco Polo of REA, just got back from a field trip through the corn fields of Iowa and is taking off again for Ole Virginie, and then to Spokane, Washington. Isn't there just one little spot where he hasn't been or intends to be?.....

J. H. O'Brien is back from his field trip. We'd love to tell you all about the fishing trip he and J. J. Wilhelm went on, while up in the Northwest (how J. J. stood up in the rowboat, and it tipped over, how they both got "ducked," and how those wonderful chicken sandwiches they brought along for lunch were a complete loss with dipping in the gravy of H2O) but then we've been threatened with direct consequences if we so much as mention it.....

It appears that Virginia Merrills is the best news item in the Office of the Solicitor. In last week's SPAN there appeared an item with regard to Virginia's crashing Mademoiselle. Last Sunday Va. crashed into a cat—a black one at that—and came out second best. The occasion was a party given by Virginia for the attorneys in the State Law and Litigation Section, but on advice of counsel, Va. will not sue the cat.....

Some people are ungrateful. Last Sunday J. Warner Pyles, Dev. Killion, and Jim Bentley spurned Sturdie's coaching efforts on the 18th pole at Crystal Lake Golf Course. In spite of occasional verbal instruction a total of six golf balls were pitched into the Lake and Sturtevant was blamed. Sturdie, poor little man, followed the golf balls immediately after the lesson. Such cruel people that walk the halls of REA.....

Sam Lubin, on furlough from Tech Standards under Directive X, with the Radio Research Laboratory at Harvard, writes: "Well, I can now tell you that for the past two years I have been working on Radar Countermeasures, trying to gum up the enemy's radar and also reading thru his gumming up of ours. It was sure gratifying to know how much our activities helped to cut down plane losses and the number of lives saved thereby. Now I guess all I shall be good for is gumming up other people's activities.".....
